"Studying a Master in International Tourism and Hospitality Management at JCU Brisbane was a life-changing experience for me.

In my course there was a good mix of tourism related subjects and business subjects. Lectures and tutorials were never purely theoretical and always full of real life examples. Assignments were challenging and helped us to develop skills such as creative thinking, critical thinking and analysis.

Most importantly, the knowledge and skills I learned help me a lot in my current job. Eight months ago I joined Booking.com, one of the biggest online travel agencies in the world, as a hotel account manager in the Sochi office, in Russia. My role is to help our partners, big and small hoteliers, to get more bookings, increase sales and meet guests' demands with the use of Booking.com instruments.

I am happy that I now have a chance to work in the tourism and hospitality industry and in some way keep contributing to its development."

Student Visas

How to obtain an Australian visa for study at JCU Brisbane

As of 1 July 2016, the new Simplified Student Visa Framework (SSVF) came into effect.

This means there are new requirements to consider when applying for a Student Visa to study in Australia.

You or your Agent (on your behalf) will need to apply for your visa directly with the Department of Home Affairs. All international students will now apply for a single student visa (subclass 500), regardless of their chosen course of study.

What does this mean for you?

- Mandatory online lodgement of Student Visa Applications
- Student document check list tool (this tool allows you to provide evidence to ensure you meet financial and English language requirements)
- A new immigration risk framework is used to guide the evidence of English language and financial capacity that a student needs to provide with their visa application

Key Requirements for student visa (subclass 500):

- Genuine temporary entrant (GET) requirement
- Enrolment in a registered course of study
- Financial capacity and English language proficiency
- Health and character
- Health insurance
- No debt to the Australian Government

For more information, please refer to The Department of Home Affairs www.homeaffairs.gov.au

Working as a Student

Under Australian immigration regulations, students on a student visa may work up to 40 hours per fortnight during university teaching periods and without restriction during university vacations.

Permission to work in Australia will be automatically included when the student is granted a student visa.

For further information regarding your working rights please refer to www.fairwork.gov.au

Working Rights for Partners

If a student's spouse is joining them, they will also be able to work whilst the student is studying in Australia and can apply for a permission to work visa. The work conditions for the spouse will vary depending on the degree that is being studied.

Bringing Family

Spouses and children can join the student in Australia but each family member must be added to the student visa application, and certain conditions will apply depending on the age of each family member.

If the children will be attending school while in Australia, school fees will need to be paid for them. For more information, visit: www.eqi.com.au

ESOS Act and Tuition Protection Service

As a provider of education services to international students in Australia, James Cook University is required to comply with the Education Services for Overseas Students Act (ESOS Act) and the National Code of Practice for Registration Authorities and Providers of Education and Training to Overseas Students (The National Code). The ESOS legislation and National Code, specify minimum standards for the delivery of courses to students in Australia studying on a student visa and regulate what information must be given to existing and prospective international students, what support must be provided to existing students, what records are kept and what information is to be given to government agencies about international students. For more information visit the ESOS Act webpage.

JCU's Tuition Fee Policy for International Students applies to overseas students who do not commence their studies with JCU, or withdraw before their course is completed. The policy sets out the circumstances in which a student is entitled to a refund as required under the ESOS Act, and can be found at:

www.jcu.edu.au/policy/student-services

Important Information

The Tuition Protection Service (TPS) is a placement and refund service for international students studying on a student visa which also operates under the ESOS Act. The TPS replaces the Tuition Assurance Scheme and the ESOS Assurance Fund. On the rare occasions that a provider is unable to deliver a course an international student has paid for and does not meet its legal obligations to make alternative course replacements or provide a refund, the TPS will assist students to find an alternative place or, if this is not possible, provide a refund of any unspent tuition fees. For further information see:

www.tps.gov.au

Deferral, Temporary Suspension or Cancellation of Enrolment

The ESOS National Code and student visa conditions contain restrictions on when students, or JCU, can defer, suspend or cancel a student enrolment. Deferring commencement of study, or taking a leave of absence once studies have commenced can only take place when there are compassionate or compelling reasons for doing so. A "compassionate or compelling reason" is something which is beyond the student's control and which has, or will have, an impact on academic progress or wellbeing. The university may suspend a student temporarily, enforcing a break from study, in certain circumstances. For more information on deferral, suspension and cancellation of study see our website.

Registration and Orientation Week

Registration and Orientation at JCU Brisbane is compulsory for all newly enrolled students to attend. This week is spent ensuring that all students are correctly registered and enrolled in their program, receive their student cards and get their student logins, so they can start their chosen course and subjects on time.

Registration and Orientation is also a campus-wide celebration for students commencing their studies at JCU Brisbane, it is an excellent opportunity to meet lecturing staff and make friends upon arriving in Brisbane.

For most students, this week is usually the first taste of university life in a new country, and for this reason, Registration and Orientation at JCU Brisbane has been carefully planned to ensure students a smooth transition into Australian studies and campus life, enhancing the student experience.

Registration and workshops are compulsory, therefore flights to Brisbane will need to be booked to include attendance at these events.

A detailed schedule for Registration and Orientation week is usually available online at www.jcu.edu.au a month before the start of a new trimester.

How Potential Students Will Be Assessed

The university has a variety of assessment methods that apply to its courses. These include examinations, essays, oral presentations, group projects, assignments, quizzes, practical examinations, placements, laboratory reports, class participation and workshops.

Mode of Delivery

All programs and subjects are timetabled over each trimester. Students on study visas must attend each trimester with a study load of three (3) subjects minimum.

All conditions of attendance and study can be found on the JCU Website Student Policies at www.jcu.edu.au/policy/student-services
