YOUR LIFE'S WORK BEGINS NOW.

At York, it starts with the passion you'll find.
The connections you'll make.
The career you'll pursue.
And it begins today.
Because your life's work is more than work. It's the lives you'll touch. It's the difference you'll make.

FROM DAY ONE.

BRYCE KRUGER

FROM DAY ONE

"I TOURED
30 COLLEGES
AND STILL FOUND MYSELF BACK AT YORK."

Pay it Forward

"I grew up and still live in downtown York. At first, I struggled with the idea of going to college in my hometown, but my goal is to have a positive impact on York, so this turned out to be the perfect place to begin.

I consider myself a change agent. I am driven by a desire to make York a better place to live and work. And York College is deeply invested in improving the city through such projects as Market View Arts and the Center for Community Engagement.

I've found that to embrace new experiences, you need to push yourself outside your comfort zone.

York gives you a platform to apply what you learn and try new things."

"FROM THE BEGINNING
YORK UNDERSTOOD
MY STRUGGLES."

Believe

"From the first day, York appreciated my passion for student government and theatre. More than that, they believed in me.

I was struggling academically, but they saw I was committed. They offered me a scholarship and helped me identify good loans to make it happen.

Studying theatre at York is different from other schools. My professors make me feel proud to be a person of color, and they make sure I'm not stereotyped. Just as important, the program goes way behind the scenes. We study professional and technical aspects of theatre as well as acting.

They want to make sure we stand out, so they make sure we learn a broader skill set. It's a great program. I'm home!"

FROM DAY ONE

“LIFE ISN’T ABOUT PRIORITIZING YOUR SCHEDULE. IT’S ABOUT SCHEDULING YOUR PRIORITIES.”

“Get Involved.”

“At first, York wasn’t even on my radar. But the more I heard about alumni connections, the more I started thinking York might be a better investment, a place to start building a network.

The pre-med program offers all of the courses that medical schools require. That and great advising make it easier to graduate in four years, prepared for the program that’s right for you.

But honestly, if biology were the only thing I was doing, I’d go crazy. Here, I can join a fraternity and run for student government. I’ve traveled to Costa Rica for my studies. I attended COP 23, a global climate conference in Bonn, Germany. Right now, I’m doing research on lipid production in algae to improve bio-fuel production. And I’m making connections.”

"I CAME FOR THE SCHOLARSHIP. I STAYED BECAUSE I LOVE YORK!"

"I'm a classical pianist, and I majored in music performance. But I was able to add a second major, a BS in Music Industry and Recording Technology. It's a new degree that focuses on the business and production side.

People don't realize how active York College is in the local music scene. Our York Music Group produces live shows downtown. We put our production skills to work hosting Saturday morning recording sessions for local bands in the College's fantastic $600,000 recording studio. We produce CDs. It's an amazing way to connect with music beyond performing.

In one of my classes, we studied arts funding. That's when I fell in love with the business of the arts. My goal: become an administrator in the music industry."

“IF NOT FOR YORK, I NEVER WOULD HAVE GOTTEN THAT SCHOLARSHIP TO NYU.”

“I came to York College from the Bronx. Now, I’m headed back to New York for graduate school.

When I arrived, I was shy. It took me until sophomore year to start meeting people and getting involved. I joined a sorority. As a senior, I joined Student Orientation. That was the best thing I ever did.

I wasn’t sure about graduate school, but my adviser suggested I take a look at NYU’s Master of Arts in Higher Education and Student Affairs, which perfectly combines my interests in psychology and people. I even got an internship that pays tuition. Plus, I can live at home.

Thanks to York, I know where I’m going.”

“I’m ready to change the world.”

COLLEGE IS A JOURNEY.

To finding yourself. To digging deep and dreaming big. To the passions that connect your world.

The men's and women's cross-country teams will be defending their conference championship titles. Most recently, the York College men's basketball team has been recognized for team academic excellence as announced by the National Association of Basketball Coaches.

SURPRISING YORK

York, PA, has its roots as a pre-Revolutionary War town and is currently a 45,000-resident manufacturing and hospitality hub as well as a revitalized hotspot for small businesses and entrepreneurs.

What's that mean for you? Enjoying the bustling First Fridays downtown. Wandering through the chic business district with a farmer's market, a York College art gallery, and new restaurants everywhere. Internship opportunities galore. It's a vibrant backdrop for academic preparation and nightlife. York is setting the stage for professional opportunities after graduation and the time of your life before you get your diploma.

“Downtown York offers the amenities of a big city with a small-town feel. There's something for everyone and it's a wonderful community to be a part of!”

Kristen Evans Dempwolf
Public Relations
New Freedom, Pennsylvania

History in the Air

Beginning in September 1777, York served as the U.S. Capital for nine months, during which Continental Congress adopted the Articles of Confederation, named the first National Day of Thanksgiving and signed the French Treaty of Alliance.

 FOCUSED ON YOUR SUCCESS

BE YOUR BEST

At York College, we take academic and professional preparation personally.

First-Year Seminar sets the stage for success by introducing you to essential college skills while letting you dive into a specialized topic. A peer fellow looks out for you so you've got built-in support. Plus, your advisor will help you develop a personal plan that matches your skills and interests.

Big enough to offer many options and small enough to pay attention to individuals, York works with you to find the best fit for your skills and interests and then puts you on the path to academic and professional success.

Personal. Best.
Working shoulder-to-shoulder with your advisor, you will draw up a Personal Strategic Plan that matches your skills, interests, values, and goals with the major that's right for you. It's your personal road map to success.

Undeclared?
No Worries. We Have a Plan.

- Attend New Spartan Day.
- Contact your peer advisor monthly before arrival on campus.
- Attend special sessions designed for you during Fall Orientation.
- Meet bi-monthly with your peer advisor.
- Meet monthly with your academic advisor.
- Attend Undeclared Student Socials and the Majors Fair.
- Continue meeting and talking with advisors until you choose your direction.

Ready for What's Next
Generation Next creates a system of courses that allow you to explore personal interests, as well as enhance and strengthen skills and abilities valued by your major, as well as employers.

Welcome Tradition

Convocation, held during Freshman Move-In Day, is a formal celebration of scholarship and tradition. Every year, we welcome our newest students into the York College community. We also help you move in, go shopping, and get settled!

LEARN IN THE CLASSROOM, LEARN IN THE FIELD

Equally focused on professional and academic skill development, York is truly a different kind of college. You'll learn in the field as well as the class, and you'll learn how to collaborate in groups. Entrepreneurial and leadership opportunities will sharpen your people skills.

You'll benefit from such success-oriented resources as York's J.D. Brown Center for Entrepreneurship, which helps students work on business ideas before they graduate.

"I started as a chemistry major, but quickly realized it wasn't for me. Thanks to great advising, I was able to keep my cool and look at my options. I spent a semester undeclared and fell in love with the hospitality program."

Jimmy DiGuglielmo
Hospitality
Somerdale, New Jersey

ChangeCon 2019
Centered around "Resilient Leadership," this conference provided students within the region an opportunity to enhance their leadership skills as responsible citizens in both local and global communities.

Experience Rural Education
A student teaching option in Burke County Public Schools, Morganton, North Carolina, provides student teachers with a unique opportunity to gain experience teaching in a rural area that strongly supports education and teachers.

Great Radio
Supported by the School of the Arts, Communication and Global Studies, York radio WVYC-FM is a consistent winner of national awards. It's also the perfect training ground for aspiring communications professionals.

9 in 10
Alumni say York College prepared me as a professional.

100%
Tuition and fees coverage for Presidential Research Fellowship, a competitive academic enrichment scholarship.

Corporate World
The Willman Business Center, home of the Graham School of Business, features a NASDAQ Trading Laboratory, a 150-seat lecture hall, smart classrooms, and a glass-enclosed corporate training center.

Hands-on. Guaranteed.

Graphic Design majors have access to hands-on experience with centuries-old printing techniques using an extensive collection of historic printing presses in the letterpress studio at Marketview Arts in Downtown York.

SEE FOR YOURSELF

IDEAS INTO ACTION

From the very beginning, most of your classes are small and all of your teachers are passionate subject-matter experts. Most are as experienced in the field as in academia. What's more, they are focused on your academic and personal success.

Because we're built to connect you to opportunities after college, we work hard to provide learning experiences and internships that help you transform ideas into action.

"I was very nervous about my general biology lab. However, my professor and fellow classmates were very welcoming, and from that day on, I knew I was going to love my major."

Morgan Rentschler
Biology
Shartlesville, Pennsylvania

Science is a Verb

Students recently traveled to the Marine Science Consortium in Wallops Island, Virginia, where they designed and performed experiments, and studied island ecology. "They apply concepts. They 'do' science," says marine biology professor Jessica Nolan, Ph.D.

A WORLD OF IDEAS

It's a world of possibilities out there, and York will connect you with the ones that are best for you. York students have many opportunities to travel the world, discover the richness of the York community, and even to have the world visit them right on campus. Depending on your major and interests, York offers study-abroad options that align perfectly with your major and exactly how much time you want to spend.

Go Global

LEARNING WITH YOUR HANDS AS WELL AS YOUR MIND

York students have countless opportunities to engage with the world – whether it’s in Beijing or in a York public school. Our focus on professional preparation combined with our commitment to experiential learning leads to career or graduate school success, and it finds full expression in eye-opening experiences on campus, in York City and around the region.

What you do here will make you more valuable, no matter what comes next.

“Most students go through a learning curve coming into college. York does a great job of helping you adjust.”

Ronnie Mitchell
Psychology major, Biology minor
Edgewood, Maryland

College of the City

Through the Center for Community Engagement, you’ll get on-the-ground experience serving and working in and around York City. The Center matches students with service and development projects, tying the College more closely to York City.

Making Room to Make Art

York’s Appell Arts Fellowship, a residency program open to recent College graduates, provides recipients with housing, parking, studio space, and a stipend. Fellowships culminate in an exhibition of the year’s artistic production.

Passage to India

Through a partnership between York College and Homes of the Indian Nation (HOINA), students travel to India to do service work in orphanages. “I saw just how powerful education can be in the lives of children,” says student Ebony Mason.

Profesores Necesarios

Spanish education majors prepare to meet growing demand across the country and abroad. Carefully planned short-stay study programs in such locations as Spain, Mexico, and Puerto Rico help students build fluency and still graduate on time.

Greek to Me

At York, Greek life is as much about service as social life. In fact, the York Greek community annually recognizes the chapter with the best service project, most involvement in campus life, and top philanthropic endeavors.

HISTORY

- York Academy received its charter from the General Assembly of Pennsylvania in 1787
